PENINSULA BRIDGE MUST BE REPAIRED

ORDER FROM COUNTY BOARD

PENALTY THREATENED FOR RE-FUSAL TO LOSE OF FRANCHISE AND ADJUSTMENT OF THE RATES OF TOLL.

As a relief to the people who have occasion to use the Peninsula bridge, and to whom the coming of the bridge has been a great inconvenience, the board of county commissioners has finally taken action to compel the bridge company to close the draw and put the bridge in condition for use or forfeit its franchise and have the toll rates readjusted.

The board of commissioners has ordered the bridge company to repair the bridge and have it in condition to travel within 90 days or the franchise will be declared forfeited. The action taken by the county commissioners, at the regular monthly meeting held this week, reads as follows:

"The board of the board is ordered to instruct the Daytona bridge company to proceed forthwith to repair the Peninsula bridge and have the same opened within 90 days, and that a failure to comply with this request will forfeit their county franchise and require a readjustment of toll rates over the other two bridges, for which rates were fixed on a basis of cost of operation of the three bridges."

On motion the clerk was ordered to advertise for bids for about piling for the Howe Bay fill, according to specifications, which would indicate the county commissioners have finally taken notice of the bad condition of the road and bridge in the vicinity of Howe Bay.

At the meeting the following road and bridge reports were submitted:
District No. 1—Grading Orange City-Spring road, one mile about, prisoners at work on East Coast turn, and general repairs.

District No. 2—General repairs to shell roads in district.
District No. 3—Pine strawing De-Leon-Clifton road, completion of grade on the Volusia-Daytona road, grading the Barberville-Seville road and general repairs.

District No. 4—Repairs to Seabreeze-Orlando and Daytona-Deland roads.
District No. 5—Repairs to Shiloh-Oak Hill road, Brevard-Volusia county road, Oak Hill-New Smyrna road, Daytona road and New Smyrna-Osceola road.

The county board also took action by instructing the chairman of the board to institute condemnation proceedings against Mrs. H. A. McClellan for the right of way through her property for the John Anderson highway.

By action of the board Beck's ferry is declared a public ferry and H. A. Queen is appointed ferry-man, his salary to be made up of the following tolls, which he is permitted to charge: One auto one way, 50c; one double team one way, 50c; one single team one way, 25c; one foot passenger, 25c; one passenger with horse, 50c; night service, double day rates.

CARNIVAL WILL REMAIN
HERE THREE MORE DAYS.
The Johnny Jones Carnival company will be in Daytona the three remaining days of this week and the attractions will give continuous afternoon and evening performances as usual. The free attractions will be given each afternoon and evening, the balloon ascension and high dive, weather permitting.

POLICEMAN IS STABBED AT LAWRENCE

SCORES OF HEADS CRACKED TROOPS AGAIN TAKE CHARGE

ANOTHER PARTY OF STRIKERS AND CHILDREN START FOR NEW YORK TO MAKE DEM-ONSTRATION IN METROPOLIS.

LAWRENCE, March 7.—Rioting again started in the textile strike district today and Policeman O'Brien was stabbed in disposing of pickets on his beat.

One strike breaker was stabbed in the rioting and scores of heads were cracked by the policemen. Following the outbreak 14 arrests were made by the officers. The militia has again been compelled to take charge of the situation here after an idle week.

Another party of strikers and children started from here for New York today.

The Arlington mill today offered 1,000 wool combers an increase of 11 per cent. in wages.

BOND FOR GAS FRANCHISE IS FILED WITH THE CITY CLERK

SCHANTZ COMPANY ACCEPTS FRANCHISE AND BEGINS WORK WITH PRELIMINARY SURVEYS OF THE STREETS.

The Schantz Electric, Ice & Water company has accepted the gas franchise recently granted by ordinance by the Daytona city council and ratified by the people at the special election held February 27, and the bond of the company to insure the plant being in operation by October 1, 1913, has been filed by the company with City Clerk A. McF. Porter.

That the Schantz company is acting in good faith and means to erect an up to date gas plant in Daytona is shown by the fact that surveys of the streets are already being made for estimates on piping and operations toward the laying of pipes and erection of the plant will be carried on continuously as rapidly as possible until the plant is completed and in operation.

Messrs. Clark and Whitney of Boston, who have been in Daytona for some time, will leave for the north next week, and will place orders for pipe and machinery for the plant at once.

NEW CHARGE IS MADE AGAINST MRS. VERMILLYA.

CHICAGO, March 7.—On motion of the state's attorney the charge against Mrs. Vermillya of murdering Policeman Arthur Bischoffberger was dropped today. The woman was then immediately re-arrested on a charge of murdering Richard Smith, an Illinois Central railroad conductor.

PLAN TO DEEPEN THE CHANNEL

ALSO TO GIVE MORE WATER FOR LARGE BOATS TO DOCK

YACHT CLUB OFFERS TO APPRO-PRIATE $1,500 IF CITY COUNCIL AND BOARD OF TRADE WILL GIVE LIKE AMOUNT.

At a meeting of the Halifax River Yacht club, held Wednesday afternoon, an action was taken that will,
it is thought, before another season, make the channel to, and the water in and around the yacht club and city docks of such depth that all boats that can navigate the river at all will be able to come in.

The matter of dredging out the canal from the main channel at the draw to the docks, deepening the water around the docks, and removing a large coralline rock that is a menace to navigation, has been talked about for several years, but nothing has ever come of it, for the reason that the committee had not enough power, and no money that was available for the work. Whenever any dredging has been mentioned it has always been suggested or desired that the dirt drawn out be placed on the seawall on the city island. Such a plan is utterly impractical, and will cause a much greater expense, all dredge operators agree.

Any amount of money up to $50, 000 could be used to good effect in dredging the waters around the local shipping docks, but such an amount being out of the question, it is the plan as formulated at the meeting Wednesday to aim at $3,000, and use whatever amount over that which may be forthcoming from popular subscription.

At the meeting Wednesday at which about half of the total membership of the club was present, it was unanimously agreed to pledge $1,500, to be given into the hands of the committee appointed, just as soon as the city of Daytona, and the board of trade raise another $1,500.
The club will appropriate as much money as can be spared from the treasury at the time, and will borrow the rest, and every bit of the detail work was attended to at Wednesday's meeting. A committee of three was appointed to appear at the next regular meetings of the council and the board of trade, the committee being composed of Major A. B. Foster, Conrad Stuenkel, and S. E. Bullard. When the above committee finishes its work of raising the funds the place of Major A.
B. Foster will be filled by E. T.
Conrad, the reason of the change at that time being that Major Foster will not be here when the work is done, probably in July or August.

There seems to be reason why the board of trade and city council will be ready and willing to do their share of the work, for every boat of any size that touches here for a stay of several days leaves a considerable amount of money here at various stores and supply houses.
The committee will be ready to cite numerous instances of this, as well as a good many cases during this winter season where boats of considerable size have gone on to New Smyrna and other points south for large amounts of supplies and stops of some length, simply because they could not dock here nearer than the South bridge draw, which is very inconvenient. Again, the city has already spent considerable money constructing a city dock, which, as the matter now stands, is inaccessible to the boats the dock was built to accommodate, and which therefore is practically useless. The only channel to the city dock was originally dug by the yacht club.

IVY LANE INN
The musicale last Sunday evening at the Ivy Lane Inn was a very pleasant event and a success in every sense of the word. The parties were filled to the limit with lovers of good music and the generous applause showed the appreciation of the favored listeners. The Palmetto orchestra gave several selections, old-time favorites that won instant approval.

Mrs. Bohannon sang several very effective selections and was forced to respond to several encores which she did very graciously. Miss Shelly deepened the impression made upon her first singing at the Inn, her contralto voice showing much sweetness and feeling. Miss Evelyn Adwood favored the guests present with piano music and also played a duet with Miss Ella Williams, which was an unusual treat for those present. Miss Williams was very generous in her share of the work.

The concert room was made attractive with palms and potted plants and the floral decorations were lovely roses, brilliant red Richmond, and white Killarney. Yellow jessamine was used in the dining room where refreshments were served.

SECRETS ARE BARED

Representative Harrison Says British Have U. S. Navy Data.

Ascents English Accountants Employed by Department Have Access to Records—Resolution Calling for Information.

Washington.—Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York demanded that the navy department tell whether it has been employing foreign accountants in capacities where they have had access to the confidential or secret processes of manufacture in the navy yards. He introduced a privileged resolution calling on Mr. Meyer, secretary of the navy, for full information.

The New York Democrat made public a complaint of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, which says in part: "Properly to control our systems it is necessary for the accountants to familiarize themselves with the processes of manufacture, material, labor, efficiency of various machinery and overhead expense. Hence the secrets of the navy are accessible to British subjects employed as accountants. How easy it would be for secret service agents of Great Britain to be employed on the staff of these chartered accountants in their navy yard work."

It is further said that British firms of accountants have transferred firm members and a majority of their minor assistants to this country, supplanting American accountants.

Secretary Meyer has replied in a letter to a member of the house that these accountants "did not have access to records, processes or types of machinery that could be considered in any way of a confidential nature."

Perley Morse, president of the New York accountants, has written to Mr. Harrison that Secretary Meyer has not stated all the facts. Mr. Morse added that Mr. Meyer neglected to say that these British accountants have been installing new systems in American navy yards and that they could not do this without access to secret processes and methods of manufacture.

Mr. Harrison will call up his resolution in a few days and it is expected to pass the house. The senate will not need to act on it.

ORDERS SON TO KILL SELF

Mother's Sorrow for Boy's Misdeeds Is Responsible for Attempted Suicide.

Budapest.—The sorrow of a mother for the misdeeds of her son led her to order him to commit suicide. The son, Zoltan Rythivsky, is alleged to have been concerned in bank frauds involving over $50,000.

Before his arrest, he made an attempt on his life at the command of his mother, who had learned of the frauds. The woman caused a younger son to buy a revolver and hand it to Zoltan with the remark: "You must die in order to make your family happy."

The mother went into the room and waited to see her son shoot himself. He did so but the wound was not serious and he is now recovering in the infirmary and is said to have confessed.

FILES QUEER EXPENSE BILL

Candidate Pays 85 Cents to Repair His Gum Shoes—Total Expenditure Was $10.17.

Springfield, Mass.—Such unusual items of campaign expenditure as shoe repairing and cost of canvas gloves are included in the statement filed with the county clerk by Councilman John J. Walsh of this city, who squeezed into office a few days ago by a plurality of 12 votes. His total expenditure was $10.17, and the items are dignified by a big letter caption: "How I Did It."

He began with a contribution of $5 to the Republican city committee, and later spent $4.75 for advertising. The remainder is accounted for as follows: "Paid ten cents for canvas gloves to protect my hands while knocking on doors, seeking votes."

"Paid 85 cents for repairs to footwear used in gum-shoe campaign."

100 TO MOTHER ONE BABY

What New York High School Girls Taking Course in Housekeeping Will Do.

New York.—One hundred girls students in the Washington high school here who are taking a course in housekeeping will adopt a baby and care for the child as a part of the work of the course. The pupils will take turns in washing and feeding the infant, feeding it, singing it to sleep and wheeling it in its pram.

A special committee selected by the class has picked out a baby from a number of soundings offered by the State Charities Aid association. The students are now making preparations for a "naming party" to be given in its honor. The name will be selected by vote.

Love of Jewelry. Reading that a red chequer boning piece, wearing a blue enamel ring marked 1911 L-848, had been found at Ewell, Surrey, an old lady remarked, says London Punch that it was terrible how the love of jewelry appeared to be spreading among all classes.

Only Justifiable War. The only war that the spirit of today can think of without shame is the indignant defense of a homestead which is a home for all.

Reaching a Compromise

Putting Jeffrey Webber and style together in one thought would have struck all his friends as a most startling act of insanity, something in the light of touching a match to a bundle of explosives and daring it to burn.

All his life he had shied at anything on the theory that if the beneficent powers above had favored a man with this whiskers it was rank extravagance for him to adorn himself with unclean fluff. Likewise he could not understand the blind foolishness of masculine individuals who turned from celluloid collars which one could wash daily and thus save unnecessary laundry bills. As for clothes—they were merely required for covering.

That, then, was the problem. Antoinette Webber had to wrestle with when she came back from boarding school and began to get the family arranged for her wedding.

Being a woman, her mother was quite amenable to new ideas, but when Antoinette tackled Jeffrey he figuratively stood up on his hind legs and roared a war cry.

"There's suit!" he choked. "Me! At my age! Cracky! Never!"

"Now, father," Antoinette began soothingly, quite as though she held a tablespoonful of bitter medicine in one hand and was prying open his teeth with the other, "I want you to look your best when Horace and his friends get here."

"Look my best!" her father roared again. "Dressed up like a monkey on a stick!"

"And you've got to wear a tie," Antoinette broke in, firmly.

They revived Antoinette's father with tender care, but he never was the same man after that. He gloomed around the premises, surveying with a hostile eye the housecleaning preparations for the coming wedding and he developed a jumpiness at everything unusual and suspicious.

Antoinette was in despair. She was marrying into rather a fashionable family and the thought of Horace's college friends and his family arriving to find that while her father had a heavy bank account he had no sense of sartorial values was a tragedy.

"Horace and his party won't get here till the day itself," Antoinette told her mother in one of their hopeless confessions. "They won't notice did so much then, but in the evening, at the wedding—mother, I'll just die if he wears that baggy old gray sack suit and his celluloid collar and no tie!"

"Then I'm afraid you're due to die, daughter," said Mrs. Webber, who had been married to Antoinette's father long enough to know.

"I won't," snapped Antoinette, with the blind faith of youth in its powers. "I'll manage it somehow. I'm not going to have the only wedding I'll have in my whole life spoiled by father's ridiculous stubbornness!"

She and her father eyed each other warily toward the last, like gladiators before the fight. Her father occasionally bought a new celluloid collar and a fresh ten-cent collar button and a new pair of celluloid boots.

The day of the wedding Antoinette's father, the only inconspicuous spot in a refurbished, decorated house, filled with frills and fluff, went upstairs to get ready for the evening's fray. Laying out his new collar and collar button and simply tossing his old gray clothes over a chair, he stepped into the bathroom for his ablutions. He was absent 20 minutes.

When he came back to his room he blinked. On the bed were spread some strange black things. The coat was low cut and had long tails. Patent leather pumps stood tentatively beside a pair of silk socks. There were also some weird stand-up linen collars and a box of white ties and a large bouffant shirt. There was nothing else in the way of clothes in the room.

Nobody paid any attention to his ravings and yowling, for everybody was dressing the bride or was getting dressed. Choking, snarling, hectic with rage, Antoinette's father stalked in his bathrobe, poking a finger now and then at the hated garments.

Finally the wedding went on. Everybody was present but the bride's father. After the ceremony and congratulations the bride herself headed a hearty party for him.

Holding her trailing white skirt in one hand, Antoinette, accompanied by Horace, ran him down at last in the most secluded corner of the haymow. There he sat, hunched up, smoking a pipe serenely. He had on the clothes, swathed, bunched around him, the dress shirt and the high collar and all—but the collar button gleamed defiantly between the strands of his whiskers, proclaiming his last stand—no necktie.

"Father," begged the bride tremulously, "come down, please! It's time to go in to supper. There's scallapoppy appetizer and—"

"I've got on these clothes," her father interrupted her sternly, "because I'm a law-abiding citizen and you took the others away, but I'll be eternally indebted to you before sensible human beings. If you want the wedding check I've written out for you, Antoinette, you see that I get them coppers and other devalued right out here."

So they compromised on that basis.

Humankind's Perversity. What is remote and difficult of success we are apt to overrate; what is really best for us lies always within our reach, though often overlooked.—Longfellow.

Prevalent Industry. Overindulgent, dependent almost entirely for their value upon the fashions of the day, are one of the most important products of Cape Cod.—Gay.

NEW PLAN FOR IMPROVING POOR TELEPHONE ACTION

ALSO WHEN YOU WISH TO WAKE UP CENTRAL, MAKE USE OF THE METHOD ADOPTED BY
 T. E. MAYBERRY.

Messrs. T. E. Mayberry and W. L.
 Metts, proprietors of the Palace market on North Beach street, had been having some trouble with their telephone. That in itself is nothing unusual, but the plan of improvement hit upon, accidentally, by Mr. Mayberry is rather extraordinary and might not apply for general use. It might, however, answer as a night call for central.

Mr. Metts on Tuesday asked his partner to bring his shot gun to the store as he wanted to use it the next day, so the following morning, Wednesday, Mr. Mayberry stopped at a neighbors, who had borrowed the gun, and brought it to the store. He asked if the gun was loaded and the neighbor replied that it was not. The weapon, a repeating shot gun, was some what rusty and Mr.
 Mayberry oiled it and began working it to get it free in action. He had been pumping the gun for some time, when a cartridge that had evidently been stuck in the magazine worked down and exploded. Mr.
 Mayberry at the time was standing behind the counter and close by the meat block. When he gathered himself up he was on one side and the gun on the other side of the block.
 Mr. Metts was just entering the market at the time and was about as much startled as Mr. Mayberry. himself.

The charge of shot tore away the bottom part of the phone and punctured the batteries. Dr. S. W.
 Carroll and other nearby people quickly gathered at the market, attracted by the shot and someone suggested that the telephone was ruined. Mr. Mayberry replied that it was not in a condition to be much damaged, but rang up central, who answered promptly and it was found that the phone was working much better than it had for some time past.

THIS IS THE AGE OF WOMAN

Everywhere She Is Doing Now What Formerly Was Considered the Work of Man.

It may be difficult to tell what is a woman's age, but unquestionably this is it. Men's colleges into which women have made their way have had to drive them out again in order to give the men a chance at graduation honors. From the pulpit and the bar down to the coal mine and the iron furnace women are doing what used to be regarded as man's work. The literature of the day is overwhelmingly feminist in its character and very much of it is the work of women.
 Men are being told things about women that it was not deemed proper for their fathers to know, and as for themselves, they are being shown up without remorse.

Within a few days illustrations of the feminist revolution, physically and intellectually, have become public.
 Man is destined to lose even his physical superiority. The superintendent of a hospital in Boston, where 3,000 babies are born annually, says:
 "We have noticed that girl babies are getting taller and that they are appearing in this world lately with more real vitality than formerly. The boy babies continue on the average, both in weight and height."

Use of Cement Saved Bridges.
 At Hamburg there are two bridges the masonry of which was threatening to fall in ruins, being traversed by innumerable cracks of varying size.
 A remarkable process has just been made use of to rejuvenate these bridges. A number of holes were bored throughout the structure so as to give access to the interior and cement was injected by pumps under pressure. Reports on the present condition of the two bridges are favorable.

Much and Little.
 "I would like," said a book agent to a busy editor, "to call your attention to a little work that I have here."
 "Yes," replied the editor. "Well, let me call your attention to a whole lot of work that I have here."—Literary Digest.

The Alarm Clock.
 The devil was asleep when man was made, but he awoke before woman was completed.—Life.

Would Be Great Step in Advance.
 Confidence between employer and employed would not only solve the social problem, but would rid us of a great many evils in existence at the present day.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

SOME OLD-TIME FASHIONS.

By A. W. MACY.

In the fourteenth century it was the fashion to carry silver toothpicks suspended from the neck by a chain. About the end of the seventeenth century magnetic toothpicks were used, to prevent pain in the teeth, eyes and ears. In the latter part of the eighteenth century the women of England wore hoop petticoats so large that a woman wearing one occupied the space of six men. At one time the custom of dotting the face with black patches shaped like suns, stars, crosses, hearts, etc., was very prevalent in England. Some of the ladies of the court of Louis XV wore mole-skin eyebrows. At one time all English doctors were supposed to carry gold-headed canes as an emblem of authority. During the reigns of William III, Anne and George I, in England, it was illegal for a tailor to make or a man to wear clothes with any other kind of buttons than brass.

that this is just a picture, but it represents a call and INSPECT YOUR PROPERTY.

We are all the time having inquiries in regard to a clause which is used in all policies covering personal property. This clause is called the THREE-FOURTHS VALUE CLAUSE, and people ask us if it means that they will only get three-fourths of their insurance. It does not, but requires the assured to carry one-fourth of the risk of a total loss himself.

The little illustrations below will show how this works out.

ORMOND, March 7—Geo. H. Sage has returned from the north, having been away several weeks on business. Don't forget the Glee Club concert next Tuesday evening, March 12, at the city hall.
Mrs. Allen and daughter of New York, who have been at Key West, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Colby.
The club dock is now completed and paid for, so it is lovely once more at the club.
The Village Improvement association held its annual meeting last Friday. Reports of officers and committees were read. During the past year, through the civic committee, the town has observed two municipal house cleaning days. Before the opening of the school the building was given a thorough cleaning. The town has been divided into districts, each being looked after by a member of the committee.
A Junior Civic League was organized last fall. The library committee has put new covers on several books, and a few new books have been added to the library. Quite a number of library books have been sold during the past season.
The following officers were elected for next year:
President—Mrs. Marion Thompson.
First vice president—Mrs. J. D. Price.
Second vice president—Mrs. Ellen L. Borden.
Recording secretary—Mrs. D. A. Waldron.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Clara Watson.
Treasurer—Mrs. Isabelle Simpson.
Auditor—Miss Elm Padlock.
Mrs. A. Mann of Rossville, N. C., who has been in Ocala, arrived during the week and is stopping at the Barker cottage.

SOME MISCREANT STOLE THE MONKEYS' WEEKLY EARNINGS.
J. W. Booth suggested to remove last Saturday the contributions to the monkeys at his place and Sunday night some miscreant pried the padlock from the cage and robbed the box of the weekly donations of between three and four dollars.
Mr. Booth has quite a collection of animals, birds, reptiles and insects at his place at the rear of Wallace's drug store and they prove to be a great attraction to visitors, and many persons visit the place every day. No admittance is charged but a place is provided in the monkey cage, as stated above, for the reception of voluntary contributions toward the keep of the menagerie and at this time of year these donations generally amount to several dollars by the end of the week. Anyone who would stoop to the stealing of this money is indeed contemptible.

THE D. A. R. MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
At "Edgewood," Peninsula drive, Daytona Beach, Mrs. and Miss Thompson were the hostesses to the local chapter D. A. R. Wednesday afternoon. A full attendance was present. The responses to roll call were "Historic Trees." Guests were presented from New York state and Virginia chapters. After the business pertaining to the chapter was finished the regular program opened by a paper written and read by Miss Condon entitled "Historic Mansions of New England." This most interesting paper was illustrated with past cards of the many homes described that are in perfect preservation. Mrs. Ronald then read an article on "Historic Mansions of Virginia," which was equally instructive. An exhibition of historic relics closed the program. These were displayed in an adjoining room and were both rare and valuable. Dainty refreshments were served during the social half hour that followed.

Bird and Beast Sanctuary.
Remote from all large centers of population a bird and beast sanctuary has been established in the Upper Peninsula in Switzerland. This is the Val Chisna, near Zermatt and not far from the Ober Pass. It is a well wooded spot of considerable area carefully watched and in the summer continually patrolled by keepers.
One of these, who has just returned to St. Moritz from a visit, found the park completely snowed under to a depth of more than four feet. In it were five herds of chamois, one of which numbered 147 head, besides a great number of roebuck and deer, together with bears, foxes and other smaller Alpine animals. Flocks of snow hens were also wintering in the sanctuary with numerous crossbills, ptarmigan and other small birds.
It is hoped that the establishment of this reserve will prevent the threatened extermination of wild beasts and birds in the Alps.

TAFT OFF FOR WEST ON CAMPAIGN TRIP.
WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Taft leaves tonight for the middle west, making his first stop at Toledo Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday he will spend in Chicago, returning to Washington Monday. During the trip Taft is expected to reply to Roosevelt's Columbus speech.

AVIATOR MAKES TRIP FROM LONDON TO PARIS.
PARIS, March 7.—Batling his way through a blinding rain and drenched to the skin Aviator Salm arrived at the busy aerodrome, just outside of Paris, having made no stops in his flight from the London suburb of Hendon today. He covered 237 miles in 235 minutes, crossing the channel. There was a great crowd present to witness his arrival.

TO RESTORE PARAKEETS TO THIS SECTION.
S. H. Gove is having built for J. N. Gamble at the latter's winter home at Daytona Beach a large wire enclosure for the protection of a pair of parakeets which Mr. Gamble proposes to send here from Cincinnati, Ohio, on his return to that city later in the season. It is Mr. Gamble's plan to rear a number of young birds here under protection and then when they are accustomed and able to care for themselves to liberate them in order to restock this section with these bright plumaged and attractive birds. Twenty-five or 30 years ago parakeets were plentiful in this section, but, like many other species of the feathered tribe, they were ruthlessly destroyed for their bright plumage and for a number of years none have been seen in this vicinity. This plan of Mr. Gamble's which is along the line of the government's proposed effort to establish here the oscillator turkey of Central America, is one that might well be taken up by others and extended to other species of birds, which form an attractive feature to the visitors from the north and a pleasure to residents.

GREAT PAINTER'S EARLY DAYS
Ziem Was a Tailor's Assistant, and Worked His Way to Italy to Study.
Ziem, sitting cross-legged on a table beside a window, worked as a tailor's assistant for several years. His life was thrown into a new channel by the arrival in the courtyard of an Italian family in which there was a handsome, astute-looking girl, who sang as a ballad singer. The father played a burly guitar, the mother made lace, and a boy performed divers gymnastic feats. The girl had a fine voice. Her father wanted a new coat and asked the elder Ziem to make it and Mme. Ziem to take in a part of the family as lodgers. She took in the boy and girl.

The latter lifted the future painter out of himself with her Venetian songs and accounts of the glorious city to which she hoped soon to return. Her name was Caterina. When she went away Ziem felt miserable. He lost spirit and could not shake off the sort of paralysis that had seized on all his faculties. At last he determined—with the help of his needle and his talent, as he thought, of portrait painter and musician—to make his way to Venice. There answered to his hopes of going down by water to Marsellies, for he knew no geography, and thence to Rome.
It would be now curious to see the portraits of Rome and Rhone capitalists of barres, wine and wood rats that he did for them in lieu of passage money. In Rome he got in with painters and tourists. The former helped him to enlarge his artistic culture, and the latter took him about as a guide. But Caterina and Venice lay on his heart. He so fell in love with it the first day he went on the lido that he did not break his heart when he heard that Caterina had not turned up, but had gone to Paris to serve as a model.

Good Old English Custom.
There was an old-fashioned custom on the English coast, which I suspect is now obsolete, or practiced only by the vulgar. Journeys of length being made on horseback, and of course by brief stages, it was usual always to make a halt on the way in some town where the traveler might attend divine service and his horse have the benefit of the day of rest, the institution of which is as humane to our brute laborers as profitable to ourselves. A counterpart to this decent practice, and a remnant of old English hospitality, was, that the landlord of a principal inn laid aside his character of a publican on the seventh day, and invited the guests who chanced to be within his walls to take a part of his family beef and pudding. This invitation was usually complied with by all whose distinguished rank did not induce them to think compliance a degradation; and the proposal of a bottle of wine after dinner, to drink the landlord's health, was the only recompense ever offered or accepted.—Sir Walter Scott.

SAFE-BLOWER'S SMART WORK
Ingenious Operation of a Burglar Who Was After Wealth of Berlin Money Broker.

The confidence of German manufacturers of safes in the resistance of their works against ordinary safe-blowing operations was rudely shaken not long ago by the feat of a single robber in Berlin, who operated in this fashion:
In a hotel a room was secured which was situated immediately above the office of a money broker. At night a hole was pried in the ceiling of this office. By the use of a drill and saw a circular piece of the flooring was easily raised. Beneath lay a thick layer of cement. A small crack was made in this and an umbrella shoved down into the space below. The umbrella was attached firmly from above, and when opened received without noise all the fragments of cement which were dislodged as the hole was enlarged so as to allow of the easy passage of a person. By means of a rope ladder the descent was made readily into the office below. The next steps of the thief's work consisted in the bringing down of two cylinders of compressed oxygen and an acetylene generator charged with calcium carbide and water. With these he was able to produce a blowpipe flame of such intensity that steel fences in it like lead in an ordinary gas jet. It required only a brief space of time to melt away so much of the door that the contents of the safe were accessible.

Quite So.
"The mumps seem such a plebeian sort of sickness."
"It should not be, for actually it is rather a swell affair."

$30 TO $50 per acre. Good Land in tracts of 10 and 20 acres. Liberal Terms; part cash, balance on time WITHOUT INTEREST.
Also some business and residence lots in the new town of Harwood.
One acre residential lots, 100x150 on Ridgewood Avenue, adjacent with sufficient coquina rock built a stone to build your own home, garage, and all buildings needed. These lots are a good bargain at the price we are offering them, as the coquina rock alone is worth more than the price we are asking.
